

CHINA SHOP BULL

CHINA SHOP BULL play a lively 7 piece mix of ska rave and drum and bass, recently releasing debut album 'Rave To The Grave'. They have been on the festival, punk and party scene since 2006, playing around the UK and Europe with acts as diverse as Dreadzone, The Dub Pistols, Sonic Boom Six, Inner Terrestrials, The Skints, Pama International, Goldie Lookin Chain, Eat Static, Voodoo Glowskulls, Subsource and many more. Building a fast growing following with their infectious sound and lively shows, China Shop Bull have previously been invited to festivals such as Boomtown Fair, Kendal Calling, Moorfest, Rebellion, Beats Not Bombs, Alchemy, Workhouse, Limetree, Waveform, Squarefest, and Solfest to name but a few.

"Street punk, toasting, trombones, trumpets and slices of Dub War franticness, Asian Dub Foundation street suss. Prodigy dance and bounce in there with the spongy dub and all the hyper council-estate exploding confrontation." - Organ Magazine.

"It's surprising how quickly this band can go from attempting to force a crack pipe through your ear canal, to chilled-out intelligent dub ska instrumental, and back again." <http://happyskanking.blogspot.com>

Just when it's got you by the balls and you wonder if the rhymes could get any quicker the bass line any heavier than the fat bastard that it is - it all stops dead...and you think... "THAT'S FUCKING BRILLIANT!" If this band cannot make you dance then you, sunshine, don't deserve to have any feet." - The Rhubarb Bomb

"Intense throughout and yet totally enjoyable from start to finish - an amazing mix that makes the listener sit up and take note - finally a ska band that doesn't succeed in proving the cliché's right! Genius!" -
